

Remediation and reassessment

Submission dates and criteria will be made clear to all candidates in a timely manner. Failure to submit required evidence relating to an assessment by the specified date will be considered to be a first attempt at that assessment, one further submission deadline will be notified to the candidate by the assessor.